RALEIGH, N. C., FEBRUARY 19, 1898.

ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Don't forget S. C. Pool's. Remember the Capital City Pharmacy. Mr. M. D. Reeves sent us some cash this week.

Our friend Mr. P. H. Smith of Durham made a flying visit to our city last Monday.

Messrs. J. L. Wilson and J. R. Evans of Shaw gave us a pleasant call last Monday.

Mrs. Mary S. Moore, of Texas, is here on a visit to the family of Mr. Rufus S. Smith.

Mrs. Sarah Walker on East Cabarrus street, has been confined to her room for several days, but is much better.

The Valentine party given for the benefit of the Blount Street Baptist Church last Monday night at the Royal Knight Hall was a great success.

The Capital City Drug Store is the place to buy your drugs. The polite and courteous proprietors, Messrs. Love and Satterwhite, will be glad to welcome you. Give them a call.

Messrs. A. W. Scott and F. M. Kennedy were granted license to practice law last week by the Superior Court of this State.

Q. C. Mial was in town last Saturday. He states that he has enrolled 91 pupils' names in the public school at Auburn.

The Passenger Department of the Seaboard Air Line sends us a little pamphlet entitled "Study and Learn," which is quite interesting, and shows great taste and energy in the officials of that department of this great system.

Mrs. W. H. Martin, Clerk in the Treasury Department, and a Republican who has ever adhered to the principles of that grand old party, favored us with a renewal this week. As Clerk in the department mentioned, he will ever reflect credit upon the party and the State in general.

Mr. Caudle, formerly clerk in Mr. Samuel Smith's bar, has opened a nice bar just two doors above his old stand, and will be glad to see his many friends. We bespeak for Mr. Caudle much success.

He is yet a young man, and we wish our earnest and politeness will win for him the patrons of the waxy republic.

Miss Laura J. Atkins closed her public school at Princeton, last week. The closing exercises were witnessed by a large audience, and were pronounced by them the best they have seen.

Many compliments were paid Miss Atkins for the efficient way in which she had her pupils trained. Miss Atkins will continue a private school at this place.

Mrs. Eliza Fridson, one of the oldest citizens of Raleigh, died Monday the 14th at the advanced age of 83 years.

She is a sister of Mr. William H. Haywood, a stone mason here. She has lived on the premises at Dr. James McKee's for a number of years. She was not a member of any church. The funeral was preached at the house Tuesday afternoon by Rev. J. J. Worlds.

Mr. Samuel Beam Agent for the Washington Life Insurance Company, is a man rarely seen in these parts. He is truly a representative of a business that is a benefit to the negro as well as the white man.

Mr. Beam for a long time was connected with the Baltimore Company, but for reasons better known to himself, he withdrew from that company and established the company that he is now identified with. And those who are not insured will do well to insure in this renowned company.

Good things still following us in pleasant places. This week we are thankful to mention the names of our friends whose money has been received for their renewals and subscriptions. Heading one list this week we have the name of Rev. S. S. Barber, followed by Mrs. Leah Yancey, Miss Mary E. Love, one of the highly esteemed teachers in the graded school at Davidson.

Dr. Deans, the carpenter, the milliner, the barber, and the community; Mr. Cornelius Hinton, a prominent blacksmith; Mr. W. S. Moore, the merchant; Mr. Henry Hunter, the blacksmith; Mr. John Alston, the carpenter, and Mr. B. F. Thornton, the druggist.

Dry Goods Cheap—Groceries at Rock Bottom Prices—Clerks Generous and Kind—In Fact, Everything Up-to-date at Woolcott & Son.

In the store of Messrs. Woolcott & Sons, on East Martin Street, you can find at your disposal dry goods, shoes and notions, all of which are very cheap. Their groceries are at rock bottom prices and cannot be surpassed in the city in quality.

The clerks in the various departments are generous and kind and always delighted to show anything in their line without a murmur. The milliner department, which is indeed one of the noblest of the kind, and, in fact, one that is not surpassed by any in the city in styles, material and trimmings. This department is under the skillful management of one who can always be relied upon to please the eye and satisfy the taste. In securing the services of such an able corps of clerks you can rest assured that everything is up-to-date at Woolcott & Son.

EDITOR GAZETTE.—Dear Sir: Please allow me space to mention a few thoughts. I have been viewing the situation of things generally, and I find before us a great work to be done, therefore I think it might be as well to have a sincere course to pursue. In my country we will have to elect a Superior Court Clerk this year, and we want to put our best men to the front. For the Clerkship of this county we want Hon. McM. Ferguson, and for Rutherford County we want Hon. Hannon. We ask this because we are entitled to some recognition, and that too to some of the paying offices. We ask that John H. Hannon be Register of Deeds because he has been a faithful worker for his party for at least twenty-five or thirty years. He commanded to work in politics when qui a boy, and he has been working ever since. Hannon left here in 1893, but he was not in the county in 1894 to aid the R. Republican, and the Democrats stole the county. It went down in the papers as the banner Democratic county of the State. After Hannon came home in 1895, the following election in 1896 showed a Republican majority of about 2,300. I mention this to show you what a power he is to the R. Republican of Halifax County. We ask, the effect, that Hannon be elected as Register of Deeds and Hon. Mc. M. Ferguson Superior Court Clerk. Banner Republican County, HALIFAX.

BUSINESS IN RALEIGH PROSPEROUS.

Mr. S. C. Pool's Business Increases so That he has to Seek Larger Quarters and Enlarge His Stock.

Mr. S. C. Pool, the popular and efficient shoe man, and his entire force, have been busy for the past week moving just across the street from the stand they formerly occupied to the large building formerly occupied by the Raleigh Stationery Company, 131 Fayetteville Street. Mr. Pool's superior quality and cheapness of stock, in addition to his prompt and courteous clerks, have won for him such trade in the shoe business that he is forced to make this change. That at least proves that by working on small margins and turning goods fast, and by selling reliable goods, a popular and courteous man can prosper regardless of hard times. Mr. Pool will be glad to have his friends call and see him in his new quarters.

Mardi Gras Festival, New Orleans, La. The committee on arrangements are using every means in their power to make the Festival this year the greatest ever held. Elaborate arrangements have been made for the pleasure and entertainment of their guests. However, the manner in which the trip to New Orleans is made, will play no small part in making the visit an enjoyable one.

The Seaboard Air Line offers the choice of two daily trains, to schedule by either in which is very good. They leave as follows:

New York, 10.50 a. m. and 8.50 p. m. Philadelphia, 1.12 p. m. and 12.05 night. Washington, 4.40 p. m. and 4.30 a. m. Richmond, 8.55 p. m. and 9.05 a. m. Raleigh, 2.16 a. m. and 3.40 p. m. Monroe, 6.43 a. m. and 9.13 p. m. Abbeville, 11.05 a. m. and 1.35 a. m. Athens, 1.15 p. m. and 3.45 a. m. Arriving at Atlanta, 2.50 p. m. and 5.20 a. m. and New Orleans, 1.15 p. m. and 3.15 p. m. From Richmond and points south by the train arriving at New Orleans at 8.10 only one night is spent on the road.

Call on or address any Seaboard Air Line Agent.

Old Folks' Home. The Executive Committee of the Old Folks' Home met pursuant to call at Oberlin, January 20, 1898.

The persons present were: William Irey, Fletcher Lockhart, Robert Lane, William Elrby, John Seers, F. R. Freeman, Elmer Miles, S. S. Person, Louis T. Smith, Mrs. Mattie Hatching, which committee, Edward Malone, C. D. Jones, M. C. Rogers, Mrs. Bettie Malone, Willis M. Graves.

Meeting called to order by the President. After singing and prayer the President stated the object of the school was to arrange to raise funds for the payment of the Old Folks' Home. He said that 57 acres of land had been purchased and that the first payment had been met and the balance of the purchase money had been paid, and that his desire was to arrange for the payment of the balance as soon as possible.

Dr. N. F. Roberts, the secretary, sent word that he could not be present. On motion W. M. Graves was elected assistant secretary to the committee. The manager, Rev. J. C. Barker, made some very interesting statements in regard to the work.

On motion the following persons were elected as vice-presidents: Wyatt Miles, F. R. Freeman, Mrs. Thos. Ellis, Mrs. Bettie Malone, Mrs. Anna Yarborough, Rev. A. P. Eaton, Q. C. Miles, Alexander Wozack, Fletcher Lockhart, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hunter.

On motion that these vice-president organizations in their various townships to raise money for the Old Folks' Home and to ward the same to the treasurer for the express purpose of paying for the Home, and that privileges of each vice-president be extended to other places than his own to collect money.

On motion that the traveling agent and manager of the Home shall report his receipts and disbursements annually.

On motion a board of seven was formed for the purpose of carrying on the work: Rev. L. B. Hinton, president and treasurer; Rev. J. C. Barker, agent; F. R. Freeman, Isaac Hunter, Fletcher Lockhart, R. B. Lane.

After the business of the meeting was over many of the committee spoke very highly of the work, and only words of kind praise were spoken for the noble projectors of the grand work.

The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the president. Rev. L. B. HINTON, President and Treasurer. Dr. N. F. ROBERTS, Secretary. REV. J. C. BARKER, Traveling Agent. WILLIS M. GRAVES, Assistant Secretary.

Rocky Mount Grin. Prof. W. J. Hugans, H. A. George H. White's private secretary, passed through enroute to his home in Goldboro last Tuesday. He is as genial and painstaking a young man as the Second District has, and his future is a bright one.

Miss Mattie McElin visited Mrs. Martha Wilkins at Springhope last Saturday and Sunday.

We return many thanks to Dr. James Deans for a copy of the minutes of the New River District Sunday School Convention of the A. M. E. Church, held at Weldon, August 25, 26, 27, 1897. The report is very elaborate, and the statistical feature show the district to be in a progressive condition. Among other things in the report, we note the number of officers in the district are 214, teachers 120, total membership 1407, an increase of 297 over the year 1896. Average attendance per Sabbath, 900. Number of weekly teachers' meetings, 228. There are 35 Sunday Schools in the district. The report shows that the officers have spared no pains in bringing the district to the highest standard in the Sunday School work. All honor is due the president, Dr. Deans, in having his district so thoroughly organized.

Little Miss Johnnie Ann Pittman, who came home from the Franklinton State Normal School recently very sick, departed this life last Saturday morning. She was just entering the bloom of life and her demise was quite a shock to her many friends. We extend to the bereaved family our condolence.

Rev. W. B. Williams, pastor of the A. M. E. church, is a hard worker indeed and the people of Rocky Mount are proud to have such a race worker in their midst. We wish him every success in his field.

Mr. M. H. Hires has the assurance of nearly every township in his county. We are the strongest candidate in the county, and he is to come to see Mr. Hires and offer their services to him. We think from the present outlook, and with no prejudice towards any candidate, that Mr. Hires is the right man in the right place. He preaches to all Christian people irrespective of denomination.

Mr. James S. Sions is still forging his way upward in his canvass for the legislature. Both white and colored are helping him, and he is the right man in the right place. He preaches to all Christian people irrespective of denomination.

Prof. W. S. King of Springhope passed through enroute to Tarboro last Saturday, when he expects to teach in the country in the near future. W. S. A.

Emancipation Day in Greenville, N. C.

MR. EDITOR: Allow me space in your valuable paper to speak of the grand celebration the citizens of Pitt County had January 1st.

The streets were crowded from the court-house to Five Points, and about three thousand people witnessed the occasion. The procession was formed at Old Fellows and Samaritans Hall and was headed by the River Side Band; then came the United States flag, then the horsemen, then the carriages containing the speakers and ladies representing the thirteen States. This procession paraded the principal streets, thence to the court-house, where the orations were delivered. The orators of the day were W. P. Norcott, Jr., J. L. Corban and C. C. Forbes. The Emancipation Proclamation was read by Mrs. Violet B. Cherry; E. S. Sayers were read by Mrs. Mary E. Davis, Viola Davis and Miss Charity Williams. Declaration by Miss Helen Boyd.

The occasion was grand. The court-house was filled until standing room only was to be had. What made the occasion so grand was that it was all home talent, our own young men and ladies, that held the audience spell-bound for one hour and a half, speaking of the great events that have occurred in this grand country of ours in the dark days that have long since passed, and of the great men and women that race has produced since the day that Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation.

The day was spent in much joy and delight. At night an entertainment was given at the Old Fellows and Samaritans hall for the benefit of the occasion. On Monday morning the finance committee met and settled all expenses and was discharged. Balance on hand was turned over to the treasurer. B. N. BOYD, C. C. FORBES, President. Secretary.

NORTH CAROLINA. } In Superior Court. Wake County. } February Term, 1898.

To Lewis Coleman:

You are hereby notified that your wife, Virginia Coleman, has brought suit against you for divorce from the bonds of matrimony on account of abandonment, and that summons issued for you has been returned by the Sheriff of Wake county with this endorsement: "After exercising due diligence the defendant cannot be found in Wake county, and is said to be in Maryland," and that therefore it is ordered that publication of this notice be made in the GAZETTE, a weekly paper published in Raleigh, N. C., for six successive weeks, notifying you to appear at Wake Superior Court, which commences its session on Monday the 21st day of February, 1898, and then and there plead, answer or demur to the complaint which has been filed with the Clerk of said Court, and on failure to do so, the plaintiff, Virginia Coleman, will demand that she be permitted to prove the allegations of her complaint and have judgment annulling the bonds of matrimony existing between her and the said Lewis Coleman.

This January 21, 1898. D. H. YOUNG, Clerk Wake Superior Court. J. C. L. HARRIS, Attorney.
